

Intelligence you can count on.

Dear FPinfomart Client,

For those of you in Ottawa, it is not too late to register for our Breakfast Series next week. For anyone who is not able to join us this year, watch our blog for a PDF copy of the presentation. It will be available online in mid-May.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions about the contents of this newsletter, or if I can be of any help.

Site Enhancements

Toggle Highlighting

Whether it's in Personal Profiles, Quick Search, or the Archives, having your keywords highlighted within your search results can be an indispensable tool to help you determine the relevance of a document. These document highlights are great for your own search and retrieval activities, but you may not want the final copy of the story to have the keywords highlighted.

If you wish to remove the highlights without having to change your own display settings each time, it is now possible to toggle full text document highlighting on and off from within the display and printer-friendly screens. To turn highlighting off for the current display, simply click the 'Keywords' link located under Document tools. This will override your settings only for the current screen. You can click again to turn the highlighting back on for the document you have displayed.

For more information, please visit the FPinfomart.ca blog.

Faster Access to Source Information

With over 1,250 news sources on FPinfomart (not including blogs), it can be difficult to keep track of where each source is published, how often it is published, and how deep its archive is.

It is now much easier and faster to retrieve this information when you are presented with a list of source titles.

There are two places where you will see our entire news source list on one screen:

1. On the Browse Latest News page / the News "Help" page
2. On the "show me all sources" source selection screen

A "hover for more information" pop-up is now available in both these types of lists. For more information, please visit the FPinfomart.ca blog.

Complimentary Training Sessions

Upcoming Classroom Sessions

Hands-on, instructor-led classroom sessions will be held in three of Canada's major cities this month. These sessions will cover all that FPinfomart.ca has to offer, including the new features covered during the Breakfast Series. The upcoming classroom training schedule is as follows:

Vancouver – Thursday, May 19, 2011

Toronto – Wednesday, May 25, 2011

Ottawa – Thursday, May 26, 2011

If any of these training sessions interest you, please register with Yvonne Yip.

For more information on all of the different training opportunities, as well as details on the on-site venues, please visit the Training Schedule.
